VERSE 1:

If all I've done at last should come to nothing
And all I love, like sand be washed away
Still I will sing of Your unfailing glory
On bended knee I'll lift my voice and say

CHORUS:

Great is the Lord, Great is Your Name
Till my last breath I will proclaim
Great is the Lord, Great is Your Name
I give my life to sing Your praise
Great is the Lord

VERSE 2:

If you should speak or should remain in silence
Should give me light, or lead me through the dark
Whatever cost, whatever joy or sorrow
I'll worship still because of who You are

VERSE 3:

When death becomes the end of all my labors
And Christ alone my rest and my reward
May all I've done be one enduring echo
Resounding on to shout "Great is the Lord
